FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ONESOURCE RELOCATION ANNOUNCES POLICY BUILDER™
A Web Tool for Smart and Easy Relocation Policy Development

MARIETTA, GEORGIA – April 2010 - OneSource Relocation, a global, full-service provider of corporate relocation management and consulting services, announces the release of Policy Builder™. Policy Builder is a simple to use, web-based, interactive tool that allows companies to easily build effective relocation policies.

Policy Builder streamlines and simplifies the policy development process and creates a set of relocation guidelines for your company based on both industry benchmarks and your unique culture. Policy Builder manages the complexities and unique business requirements around domestic relocation policies, ultimately developing a complete Relocation policy prepared specifically for your company, by your company.

Faced with a tough economic climate, companies today must reevaluate policies and procedures to ensure they are providing the highest level of benefit available to employees. Policy Builder's powerful online tools will take you step-by-step through the relocation policy building process. Enriched with expert recommendations and industry data, this intuitive tool allows even a novice to become a seasoned professional. OneSource Relocation's experts have preconfigured parameters and the appropriate language for each potential relocation benefit, which can be easily modified, added or deleted. Additionally, your policies can be downloaded, and published to PDF, Word, or RTF at any time.

Like every other facet of your business, you want to maximize the value of your relocation benefits offered. By utilizing the most current data available combined with the years of experience and expertise of the staff at OneSource, Policy Builder takes the guesswork out of policy design.

Policy Builder™ is available free of charge on the OneSource Relocation website.
